

Make a Melody Piano Studio Policy

I. Student requirements

1. Every student must have access to a piano. If digital, the keyboard must have all 88 keys as well as weighted or hammer-action keys. This is necessary to mimic the feel of a real piano.
2. At the start of lessons, we will discuss books to aid in your piano learning. These are not deducted from piano tuition and should be purchased promptly by the student/guardian to ensure a smooth transition into lessons.

II. Schedule

1. For the most part, I follow the Dysart public school system for semester start and end dates. See the attached page for the calendar with all dates.
2. While I am not often sick, I reserve the right to reschedule lessons if necessary for my own health.

III. Payment

1. Payment is due at the beginning of each quarter. I will send an invoice to the email you provide when they are due.
2. Tuition is considered late after the 5th of the month, and a $25 late fee will be applied. With multiple late payments, I reserve the right to suspend lessons.
3. As my studio continues to grow or I gain more certification, tuition rates are subject to change.

IV. Missed lessons

1. Rescheduling within 24 hours is only in cases of illness or emergencies and is available for make-up at 7:00 pm and 7:30 pm on weekdays. Bad traffic, work conflicts, and mixed-up schedules are not excused. One free absence is built into the payment each quarter.
2. Piano requires diligence, and multiple absences take away from learning. Please make every effort to attend lessons as it is the best way to improve your piano skills.
3. To allow some flexibility with scheduling, I will send out a master schedule and contact list for swapping lesson times. Only people who consent to giving out their information will be added to the list. Students/parents are responsible for contacting and scheduling swaps on their own.

V. Discontinuation of lessons

1. Any discontinuation of lessons requires 30 days notice.

I understand and agree to follow the studio policy of Make A Melody Piano.
